

Calumet Stormwater Collaborative

2015 Workplan Actions	Lead Entity	Participating Entities	Status	Barriers Encountered	Next Steps
Green Infrastructure Design Template Work Group Purpose: Develop user-friendly, free GI design templates for communities	Delta Institute		On Hold		Promote!
Data Sharing and Modeling Work Group Purpose: Focused on how models, tools and data can be developed and applied to support the overall objectives of the CSC.			In Progress
Create stormwater regional mapping viewer	CH2M & MWRD				Working on project
Create modeling extents data layer	CH2M, Geosyntec & SSMMA				Working on project
Create data sharing portal	CBBEL & SSMMA				Working on project
Community Engagement, Planning and Implementation Work Group: RainReady Purpose: Design and test an effective, replicable, affordable and public-friendly service to help homes, businesses and communities find solutions to too much or too little water.
Design and test RainReady services in MR region	CNT	USACE, Village of Midlothian, SSMMA, Greencorps Chicago, OAI Highbridge, HCBA, Intel, MWRD, City of Chicago DPD, Elevate Energy, IDNR			CNT will pilot a new service to implement neighborhood-scale stormwater improvements in the Chicago neighborhood of Chatham. This program is called RainReady Neighbors CNT has completed a RainReady plan for the Village of Midlothian. The RainReady Chatham plan will be released this spring. In 2016, CNT will expand RainReady Community to at least 6 additional communities in the south suburbs, and will pilot a watershed-scale approach to stormwater planning.
Develop two community-wide RainReady plans in MR region	CNT	USACE, Village of Midlothian, SSMMA, MWRD, Cook County, NPS, Active Transportation Alliance, IDNR

