

Fifth Mayors – Developers Forum

Co-sponsored by the Metropolitan Mayors Caucus, Illinois Housing Council, Metropolitan Planning Council, Chicago Metropolitan Agency for Planning, and Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago

A Fresh Approach: Collaborating Toward Residential Market Recovery

November 7, 2011, 9:30a.m. – 2:00p.m.

Federal Reserve Bank, 230 South LaSalle Street, Chicago

RSVP to mayorsdevelopersforum@metroplanning.org

9:30 Registration and Continental Breakfast

Thanks to Illinois Housing Council Vice President Nick Brunick for serving as Forum “M.C.”

10:00 Welcoming Remarks

Michael Berry, Director of Policy Studies, Federal Reserve Bank

Mayor Gerald Bennett, Village of Palos Hills; Board Chair, Chicago Metropolitan Agency for Planning; Executive Board member, Metropolitan Mayors Caucus; and President, Southwest Conference of Mayors

10:15 “To Leverage Public Sector Resources and Efficiencies, Interjurisdictional Housing Collaboration is Essential”

Introductions: Robin Snyderman, Vice President of Community Development, Metropolitan Planning Council

Antonio Riley, Midwest Regional Administrator, U.S. Dept of Housing and Urban Development

Hon. Toni Preckwinkle, Board President, Cook County

10:45 Suburban Housing Collaboratives: A Case for Interjurisdictional Collaboration

Moderator: Susan Longworth, Federal Reserve Bank, author of the publication discussed in this panel

David Brint, CEO, Brinshore Development, and Executive Committee, Illinois Housing Council

Stacie Young, Director, Preservation Compact

David Mekarski, Village Administrator, Olympia Fields

Hon. David Pope, Village President, Oak Park

11:45 Break

12:00 Working Lunch: Break-out Sessions (co-facilitated by municipal leaders and developers) to build consensus on key policy and partnership strategies, and “collaborating toward residential market recovery.”

- How can participating municipalities best structure their efforts to engage developers in advancing local goals?
- What are the key financial barriers, strategies and incentives?
- What are the key regulatory barriers, strategies and incentives?
- What are optimal roles and responsibilities of public and private sector leaders supporting municipal collaboration at the local, regional, state, and national level?

1:30 “To Foster Economic and Job Development, Interjurisdictional Housing Collaboration is Essential”

Carl Guardino, President and CEO, Silicon Valley Leadership Council

2:00 Adjourn