

Corridor Development Initiative
Agenda, September 16, 2014

Alderman Rey Colón
35th Ward

Time
6:00 p.m. Item
Welcome

Please make sure to sign in at the front and help yourself to snacks.

6:10 p.m. Introduction, Alderman Colón

6:15 p.m. Corridor Development Initiative background, Metropolitan Planning Council

Breann Gala will introduce the Corridor Development Initiative process and explain the potential opportunity to shape the development of the bus terminal, plaza and parking lot around the Logan Square Blue Line entrance. Marisa Novara will review the feedback from the first meeting on September 9th and how it can shape your development scenarios tonight.

6:30 p.m. Question and answers and keypad polling

6:45 p.m. Block Exercise

Yonah Freemark, Metropolitan Planning Council, will provide an overview of the block exercise and how participants can “build” their vision for the bus terminal, plaza and parking lot around the Logan Square Blue Line entrance.

Please work with your facilitators and fellow participants to build your vision for these sites.

7:50 p.m. Wrap up

Don't forget that the Corridor Development Initiative consists of three meetings and we'd appreciate your attendance at all three! The next meeting will be a chance to hear feedback on your development scenarios from a panel of development experts.

Next meeting: Tuesday, September 30 at 6 p.m., Hairpin Arts Center
